Ever found yourself yearning for more than just English commentary on FIFA 12? Well now you can! There are over 80 language packs you can download to your PC, including Czech, Portuguese, Polish... even Arabic! With all these new game-play features and commentary options available, FIFA 12 is the most diverse football game ever released. These languages are not available on consoles or handheld versions of the game. Some languages will have different commentary voices depending on the league, for example Polish commentary will be either Miko or Szymkowiak. The commentary voice for Polish League will be Mikołaj Moroz, who is the current commentator of Polish National team. The commentators Szymon Marciniak and Paweł Kwiatkowski are also voiced by two actual commentators of Polish National team during TV coverage Marcin Danielewski, who was also a part of FIFA World Cup's commentary at 2010 by South Africa and Janusz Jójko, who was one of the commentators on Eurosport Poland. They had some appearances on FIFA 12 at Warsaw Games Week 2011. For Portuguese League there are 2 different commentary voice for this league, either João Rocha or Nuno Álvares Pereira. There is also a third commentator voice for this language, Luís Mário Ruivo, who is the commentators of Benfica L.F.C.. Other commentators voices are José Pinheiro, João Leite and Luís António Marques. They had some appearances on FIFA 12 at Warsaw Games Week 2011 and on TV coverage Jornal da Noite (Portugal) by SIC on Benfica vs Farense on January 29. The commentators voices for other languages are listed below: There are 7 different commentary voices for Russian League, 1 of them will be used depends on the team. There is also a commentator voice for Premier League, Lars Brüggén, who is The Netherlands famous soccer commentator. He is working for NOS (Nederlandse Omroep Stichting), which is the national public-service broadcasting organization that has produced all of the home internationals since 1978. Also there are 2 different commentator's voices for France League. Other commentators are Marcus Ahlm and Magnus Wikman. Lars Brüggén commentary is also available in French. For Spanish League there are 2 different commentator's voices for this league, either José Manuel Ruiz or José Ángel Burgos. Also there are 2 different commentator's voices for Germany League. Other commentators are Marcus Ahlm and Magnus Wikman. José Manuel Ruiz commentary is also available in Spanish and German language Pack for this league. FIFA 12 is set to include all of the licenses from the previous 3-year cycle (2010–2012) plus new ones such as Indonesia, Saudi Arabia and Morocco.
